

Schedule for the Archeological Society of Maryland's 2026 Annual Meeting

(Sponsored by the Mid-Potomac Chapter)

8:30–9:00 Registration, Breakfast

9:00–9:10 Welcome: Don Housley, President, Mid-Potomac Chapter and Mark Thorne, Josiah Henson Museum and Park Historic Site Manager

9:10-10:30 Archeological Society of Maryland's Annual Meeting
Valerie Hall, President of the Archeological Society of Maryland
Award: William B. Marye Award

10:30-10:45 Coffee Break

10:45-11:00 Film: My Name is Josiah Henson

11:00-12:00 Frederick L. Stiner Memorial Lecture:

"The Frederick M. Stiner Memorial Lecture is named in honor of Frederick M. Stiner, a founding member of the Archeological Society of Maryland and first editor of the Journal of the Archeological Society of Maryland. In honor of his pioneering spirit and dedication to archeology in Maryland, the Annual Fall Meeting's keynote address is given in his name."

Unearthing the Narrative: Archaeological Insights into the Landscape of the Josiah Henson Site

Cassandra Michaud, Montgomery Parks Cultural Resources Stewardship Supervisor and Senior Archaeologist.

12:00 – 1:30 Lunch on your own. Tour the Henson site on your own. Chapter members will be stationed on Park grounds and at the Log Cabin Kitchen and Museum docents will be in the Riley house to answer questions. Photos of archaeology volunteers and Henson-Nevels Family Reunions at the Henson site will be shown in the Visitor's Center meeting room (auto-repeated).

1:30-2:00: From Archaeological Site to Museum and Park

- Video clips from Henson Family Reunions
- Recorded talk by Mia Lewis, 4X Great Granddaughter of Josiah Henson and Henson-Nevels Family Reunion organizer.
- Mark and Ginger Moodie-Woodward, Senior Museum Educator talk about the variety of Henson Museum activities/programs.

2:00 – 2:45 The History and Archeology of the Freedman's Park Site

Aaron Levinthal, Historic Planner-Archaeologist, Maryland Park Service

2:45–2:50 Closing Remarks: Don Housley and Mark Thorne

2026 Annual ASM Meeting

11410 Old Georgetown Rd
North Bethesda, MD 20852

Parking at Wall Park

5900 Executive Blvd
Rockville, MD 20852

